COVER STORY

by Craig Jones

Shake Russell

Perhaps no other artist in the Houston area has managed to remain a beloved figure on the local music scene longer, while at the same time touring and writing songs that have impacted music world-wide, as Shake Russell. Opportunities to see Shake in the next couple of months include Saturday, July 2 at the Dosey Doe Music Café and Sunday, July 24 at the Red Brick Tavern. Michael Hearne will join Shake for these shows. In what has become a Labor Day weekend tradition at Bernhardt Winery, Shake will play there Sunday, September 4th. Here is more about Shake Russell from his website, www.shakerussell.com.

For more than three decades, Texas singer-songwriter Shake Russell has been entertaining audiences throughout the region with his unique, Americana style of folk-rock. A prolific songwriter, Shake has written or co-written hundreds of melodies. Through the years, Shake's songs and albums have frequented the Billboard charts, with many, including "Deep in the West," "You've Got a Lover," "Put Yourself in My Shoes," "One More Payment," and "Our Kind of Love" being recorded by such distinguished artists as Waylon Jennings, Jessi Colter, Ricky Skaggs, Clint Black, and Carolyn Dawn Johnson. Ricky Skaggs' hit recording of "You've Got a Lover" has appeared on three of Ricky's albums. In 1983 Shake was commissioned by the Texas State University in San Marcos to write a song, "River of Innocence", for a documentary filmed and produced by the university. In 1986, Shake was asked by longtime friend Bruce Bryant, creative producer at Houston television station KTRK, to compose a theme song commemorating the Texas sesquicentennial. He obliged and wrote the regional favorite, "Traveling Texas."

Shake is a two-time recipient of the BMI "Million Air" award for Clint Black's recordings of "Put Yourself in My Shoes" and "One More Payment," both of which he co-wrote with Clint, and a four-time recipient of the BMI Writer's Award. The Texas Music Association named Shake the "2004 Texas Music Awards Entertainer of the Year" and nominated his new song, "Cowboy Coffee," for the "2007 Texas Music Awards Best New Song."

Weaving sophisticated harmonies through his songs and drawing from various genres, Shake created a style of folk-rock that is uniquely his own. His repertoire consists of a blend of love songs, ballads, and waltzes, skillfully balanced with lively rockabilly tunes and soulful rhythm and blues pieces. His lyrics are imbued with beautiful imagery, catchy phrases, and inventive similes and metaphors. But it is the rich, melodious voice of Shake Russell that breathes life and spirit into the lyrics.

As a left-handed player, Shake taught himself to play upside down in the same way as the legendary folk artist Elizabeth Cotton. Later in his career, Shake would have an opportunity to meet this amazing lady at a performance in Chicago. Before settling in Texas in the mid-70s, Shake's musical career took him from his hometown of Independence, Missouri, to Kansas City, Houston, Austin, Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York City, Chicago, Nashville, and the legendary Coconut Grove, a renowned mecca for artists that is often described as the Greenwich Village of the southeast. Other notables who significantly influenced Shake's development as a singer-songwriter were Bob Dylan, Lennon and McCartney, Robbie Robertson, James Taylor, Cat Stevens, Leonard Cohen, and John Vandiver.

Editor's Note: The cover photo of Shake Russell on this issue of Sound Bites News is from Dave Clements' book, "Raising a Hand for Rett". The book contains amazing photos over 200 artists including Sir Paul McCartney, Willie Nelson, Stevie Nicks, Dolly Parton, Glen Frey and Don Henley, just to name a few. All proceeds from the book go towards research efforts to battle the horrific disease that affects young girls, Rett Syndrome. For more information visit www.raisingahand.com.

Anderson Difference!

Come experience the Anderson Ford Difference!

Everyone has heard the saying, "Home is where the heart is", and that is the philosophy that Joseph Shears, new Sales Associate at Anderson Ford in Cleveland, follows. Known by everybody as JD, we met with JD recently and got to learn more about him.

"I grew up in Coldspring, graduated from high school in Shepherd and I now live here in Cleveland, which means I have never lived far away from this area. I worked at Anderson Ford earlier in my life, starting in the Accounting Department, then in the Parts Department where I was promoted to Manager, and I held that position for three years. I left the dealership in 2011 and went into the oil business during the good times for a directional drilling job. But things began to change in the oil business and I was gone from home almost all of the time and was missing the opportunity of watching my young family grow up. These factors, and the excitement of a new challenge, made it an easy choice to come back to Anderson Ford." JD's family includes his wife, Anna and children Kaitlyn, age 7, Melanie, age 4 and Joseph, age 2.

"I feel my diverse background will serve me well as I begin my sales career at Anderson Ford. People will find that I believe strongly in being personable and honest. I will treat people right and with respect and keeping with the theme at Anderson, treating people like family.

"I will be able to help customers with both new and used vehicles. But I am excited to be able to sell the new Fords. Ford is a leader in technology and safety features and has been the leader in truck sales for decades. Interest rates remain very favorable and in almost every case we can figure out how to get customers financed."

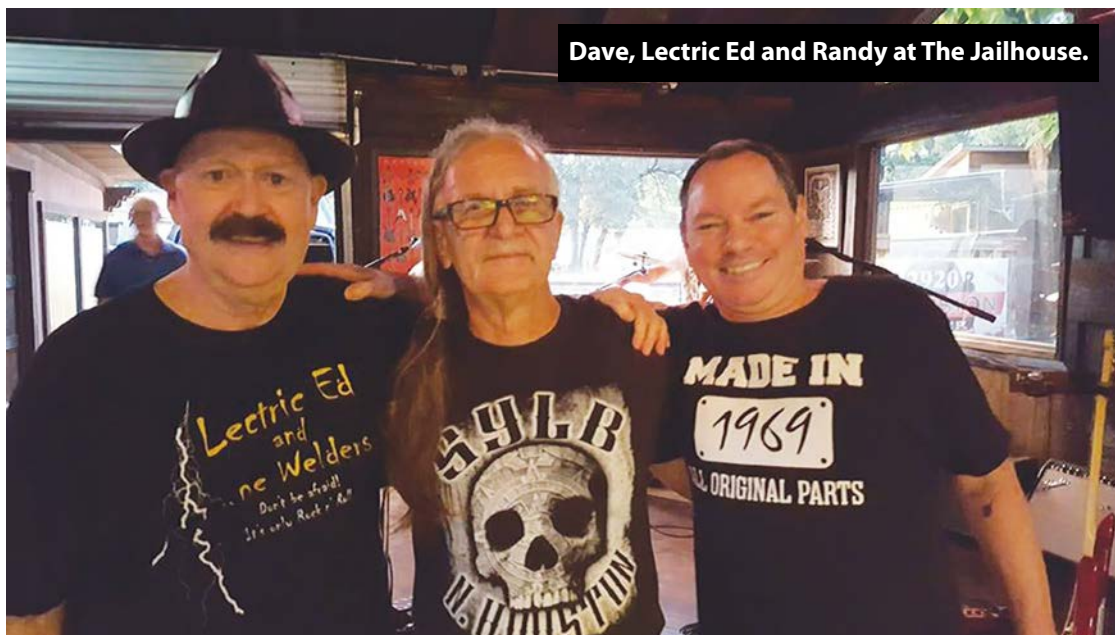

Lonely Dave's

TRAVELING GOOD-TIME SHOW

by Dave Miller

Hello friends, fans and groupies of the Traveling Good Time Show. This was an eventful month. On Thursday, May 26 I went to the dentist for a cleaning and got a good report. It started raining on my way home and never quit. By about 5:00 p.m. I had water in two rooms and the power went out. I used towels to soak up what I could. I finally left to go to town and when I came back the power was on, so I used a shop vac to suck up as much water as possible.

The next day it rained again but no more water in the house. I waited until the worst was over and got the carpet pulled in the flooded rooms. It took 3 weeks to get replacement flooring, so I walked on concrete for a while. Now I'm back together and feel scared every time I hear thunder.

Dave, Lectric Ed and Randy at The Jailhouse.

But with all the homes that flooded worse than mine, I'm thankful it wasn't any worse.

Sounds live

I have been getting out almost every week, mostly with my son Randy. We got out to hear music several times this month, and went to The Jailhouse for the jam quite a few times, with players including Scooter Green, Lectric Ed, M.T. House, Scott Shaver, Joe Leonard, Duane Lee, Bobby Doyle (a lot of harp players), Larry Gamez, Glenn Bryant, Bill Flanagan, Carl DeCuir, Guy Vincent, and Wade and Lisa Swinney in the house. Last week we had a surprise as Edison Freeman showed up and did an amazing set of rock and blues. I had not seen him in a long time. This was over a period of three weeks, and the amount of music was amazing. After a couple of hours of good music, fun and fellowship on each of those days, I headed for the house to wind down and relax.

We went to Backwoods Saloon for the jam, with Lance G & Company opening with Lance G on guitar vocals, guest Kirk McKim on guitar/vocals, Earl T. Jess on guitar/vocals, Jim Brady on trumpet, Jim Rose on drums, Guy Vincent on drums, Benny Rod, Carl DeCuir on guitar/vocals, Richard Bearden on guitar/vocals, Bill Flanagan on guitar, and Pappy Cavanaugh on vocals. Also in the crowd was Gail, Brandy, Mark and Diane. It was another day in paradise for us with so many good players and so much great music that I even got up and danced with about five ladies. Keep on Rockin'.

We tried to mix it up this month, so on the first Sunday we headed all the way to Richmond to the County Line Bar & Grill to catch our old friends the Kingpins, with Richard "Richie" Segura on drums. I figured at least we'd know someone there, but was really happy to see several old friends. When we got there Robert Frith was on guitar/vocals. We knew him for years and I reviewed three of his CD's in this paper over the years. Also in the crowd was Jody Mendez, former bass player with Monica Marie & the Blues Cruisers, Steve Stultz of the Rhythm Kings and Cisco Miller, another harp player. We also met new folks, like Russell and Holly Dodge, and a lot of other friendly folks. This is a really cool bar, and the jam has a great variety of players. Of course, this was our first visit, so it all seemed new at the time. We plan on a return trip soon. With the opening of Highway 99 (the Grand Parkway), it's not a bad drive, but still, it's 70 miles one way. But it's good to have some variety and see old friends.

Tommy Shannon (from Double Trouble) at Mo's.

Joe Leonard at Mo's.

We ended the month with the Gulf Coast Blues Assoc. Jam at Mo's Irish Pub in Vintage Park. We got there as they started, but it was so hot. Luckily we were in the shade, but some fans sure would have helped. We were greeted by a gang of folks, and found a table that Jim Goodman was kind enough to share with us right by the stage. I'll try to remember all the musicians, starting with Mike Karm on guitar/vocals, Steve Krase on harp, Tommy Taylor on drums, Tommy Black on drums, Tim "Wingnut" Hutto on drums, Joe Leonard on vocals. David Holts on guitar/vocals, Mark Andes (Canned Heat, FireFall, etc.) on bass, Tommy Shannon (Stevie Ray Vaughn) on bass, Little Joe on drums, Rick Lee on guitar/vocals, Evelyn Rubio on sax, Earl T. Jess on guitar/vocals, Wade & Lisa Swinney, and more than I can remember. The two famous bass players (Tommy Shannon & Mark Andes) were a big hit, and David, Tommy and Tommy Taylor made up the Tommy Shannon Blues Band for a rocking set, and Rick Lee's set was a big crowd pleaser. Time flies when you're having fun and before I knew it, it was 7:30 p.m. so we headed north after a great day of live music. Also, Earl T. Jess gave me his new CD, which he dedicated to Peggy. Thank you, Earl. I'll review it next month.

The Stone Coyotes

A Rude Awakening – Red Cat Records

Our dear friends have done it again. For the uninitiated, the Coyotes are Barbara Keith on guitar/vocals, Doug Tibbles on drums and John Tibbles on bass, and they hail from Greenfield, Massachusetts, but Houston is their second home and they have won legions of fans here since they first visited in 2000. This album of all original music takes off with the title cut, which tells us not to get too comfortable, as things are about to take a turn, with “barbarians at the gate”. Her ode to the icons of rock history, “The Ones Who Rocked and Rolled” pays special tribute to the stars who went down in flames, and “Might Have Been Memphis” might be an autobiographical tale of “a little girl, started playing with fire...going full speed ahead on the road to ruin”. Barb’s heavy metal roots show in “Creepin’ Like A Cat” and her love of all rock genres comes full turn in “I Wanna Be a Punk Again” with some great guitar riffs ala The Ramones. The more sentimental side comes through on “Reunited”, a heart-wrenching, soul-searching ballad of forgiveness and love, and the remake of “Thunder On The Left” (originally on “Rise From The Ashes” in 2003) puts a whole new twist on the song. Barb seems to come up with more than her share of sad songs, and “What A Pity, What A Shame” fills that slot on this album, and “Never Say Die” tells of keeping the faith under less than favorable conditions. The closing cut, “A Deep and Abiding Love” is an ode to that kind of love that often eludes most people, and only the chosen few are lucky enough to experience it. The amazing thing is that, album after album, they continue to amaze us with more great songs and they only seem to get better. But those of us who have known them for years can only expect the wonderful music to keep on flowing. Great job, Barb, Doug and John, and thanks for the all the years of amazing music! Check them out at www.stonecoyotes.com.

Road Trip Louisiana Casinos

I was able to get out of town for 3 days and 708 miles last week. I went casino-hopping in Louisiana, won some money, ate some great Cajon food and saw lots of neat stuff. I started at Delta Downs with a $200 win, spent a free night at Coughatta, won some great bonus plays and had some gumbo. Thursday

I spent on back roads, ate at Ronnie’s in Eunice, went to Bunkie, Alexandria and Natchitoches and ended up in Bossier City. After a quick loss at Sam’s Town I ended at Margaritaville, where I found a cool game called Wild Horses and kept hitting bonus after bonus. When I saw it was almost 1:30 a.m., I cashed out and went to bed. The next day I took all day to come back through Carthage, Henderson, Rusk, Alto, Crockett, Trinity, Riverside and back home. It was a fun trip.

Well, folks, that’s about it for this month. If any of you need to get in touch with me, you can call me at 936-756-9699 or e-mail me at my email address of miller22@consolidated.net or mail me CD’s to review at P.O. Box 2393, Conroe, TX 77305. See you next month!

THE BOOK

RAISING A HAND

A Photographic Music Festival With A Cause

Rett syndrome (RTT) is a neurological disorder, found primarily in females. The girls progress normally up until about 12 to 18 months of age when the characteristics of Rett start to reveal themselves. All the social skills and motor skills they have obtained slowly cease to progress, starting a process of regression to what is the equivalent of living the rest of their life as an infant. They lose use of their hands, the ability to speak and most are bound to a wheelchair. Parents and siblings become 24-hour caregivers, changing their lives forever as well. . ."

~ Kevin Black ~

Photographer Dave Clements and musician Kevin Black have joined forces to create this outstanding book featuring photographs of 200 music artists, including notables such as Willie Nelson, Sir Paul McCartney, Dolly Parton, Don Henley and Glenn Fry, Kenny Rogers, B.B. King, Stevie Nicks, George Strait, Jimmy Buffet, Merle Haggard and many, many more, all agreeing to "Raise a Hand" to find a cure for Rett Syndrome.

The books are available locally at Dosey Doe Big Barn,
Dosey Doe Music Cafe, & Red Brick Tavern,
or visit the website to have a book mailed to you.

Any music lover would love to own a copy of this book, and all proceeds from the sale of the book go toward research to find a cure for Rett Syndrome.
