COVER STORY

by Craig Jones

Hounds of Jezebel

It is always interesting when I hear about a local band that is creating a buzz and drawing nice crowds. Such is the case with Hounds of Jezebel, who play at The 19th Hole Bar and Grill on Saturday, November 19. Anal Leakage and Anchor Babies open the show at 8:00 p.m. One thing I have always liked about The 19th Hole is that there is a separate concert room from the main club. I don't believe there is a venue on the north side that has had continuous weekend live music longer than The 19th Hole. Plan on hearing songs from The Hounds EP, The Shakedown. Here is information from their website, www.houndsofjezebel.com.

In the infinite battle of good and evil, there are those who walk the line between Heaven and Hell. Born from the flesh of Jezebel and granted eternal life from Gabriel himself, these Hounds are the protectors of both Heaven and Hell. Banned from both they are destined to walk the earth for eternity. Their only solace, True Love. Stuck in a time and place where their love exists, these Hounds are brought together to consume evil, to protect the innocent, and to enforce the laws of both above and below. If the idle hands of evil have a grip on your soul, call out to Gabriel. Call out for those Hounds of Jezebel. You may hear them coming. Do you hear them? I do!

Hounds of Jezebel is an American Rock band hailing from Houston, TX. The four alter egos of John Curry (vocals, rhythm guitars), Chris Loveless (lead guitars), Daniel Wills (bass), and Mike Neyra (drums), Hounds of Jezebel take you on a musical journey through a selection of songs telling stories about collecting the debts of Heaven and Hell. With a sound that's as riffy as 70's guitar rock to a blend of influences touching on Southern Rock, and 90's grunge, Hounds of Jezebel have all the elements of familiarity all the while leaving you with a refreshed feeling that "times they are a changin".

Critics have described Hounds of Jezebel music as a mix of past and future rock that translates to an original and distinctive sound. The band lists influences from a wide landscape of music including from classic rock like Led Zeppelin, Creedence Clearwater Revival and Roy Orbison, to more recent acts such as Alice in Chains, Black Crowes, Blind Melon and Tool and newer metal bands including Deftones and Sevendust.

Come experience the Anderson Ford Difference!

Clifton Wright is returning home to Anderson Ford in Cleveland. After being at the dealership about a decade ago, he has returned in the position of Assistant Service Manager. Originally from the State of Washington, he began learning about auto repair during high school and has been in the service part of the business for 18 years, including ten years with Ford. He has been awarded Ford Master Certified Service Advisor. He has seen many changes though the years.

“What has changed so much in service is the depth you can go to really fix the problem. Often what is the culprit with a service problem appears to be obvious, but at least part of the issue can originate someplace else. Today’s technology can often determine what the entire issue is. That is why it is so important to have the latest equipment and training. We offer competitive pricing and we are very efficient in getting your work done. We have special technicians that can do things like oil changes and tire rotations quickly, so often you experience only a short wait. If repairs are more extensive, we can also provide a loaner.

“Anderson Ford is the best place for Ford warranty work and Ford parts. Also getting an extended warranty is a great idea. You can purchase one when you buy your vehicle, or later when the current warranty expires. In either case, there are excellent finance packages with extended warranties.”

Clifton likes working at Anderson Ford because it is allowing him to develop one on one relationships with his customers. He says, “Plus, we have a great group of technicians!” Clifton lives in Onalaska with his wife, Sheri Moses-Wright and son Ian, age 13.

TRAVELING GOOD-TIME SHOW

by Dave Miller

Hello friends, fans and groupies of the Traveling Good Time Show. This was an eventful month as me and the gang saw 28 bands and 111 players, and that's a LOT of music.

Sounds live

I have been getting out almost every week, mostly with my son Randy and sometimes step-daughter Debbie. We got out to hear music several times this month, and went to The Jailhouse for the jam quite a few times, with players including Lectric Ed, M.T. House, Joe Leonard, Duane Lee, Bobby Doyle, Larry Gamez, Bill Flanagan, Guy Vincent, Scott Shaver and Tex Cheroff on guitar/vocals, Sy Cheroff on bass and Joe Cheroff on drums in the house. This was over a period of three weeks, and the amount of music was amazing. After a couple of hours of good music, fun and fellowship on each of those days, I headed for the house to wind down and relax.

We started the month at Backwoods Saloon for the jam on October 2, with

Dave and Debbie at The Hideaway

Lance G & Company opening with Lance G on guitar/vocals, Earl T Jess on guitar/vocals, Cameron Scott back on sax and "Diamond" Jim Brady on trumpet for a "wall of horns", "Mighty" Mike Lawson on drums, and Brian on bass. Songs they covered included Albert Collins "Lights On, Nobody Home", Junior Wells' "Messin' With The Kid" and Earl doing Roy Head's "Treat Her Right".

Up next was Glenn Bryant on guitar/vocals for a set of originals. Vocalist Sherry Lavo came up with Steve Hankins on drums, Lance and Earl on guitar, and Brian on bass for a set. Up next was Benny Rod on guitar/vocals, with Brian on bass and Guy Vincent on drums doing The Doors' "Roadhouse Blues" and Tom Petty's "Break Down". Later in the jam Miss Leslie (of the Juke Jointers) took the stage with fiddle/vocals to do Stevie Wonder's "Superstition" and T-Bone Walker's "Stormy Monday".

Also in the crowd was Gail, Brandy, Mark, Travis Richmond on sound, Diane and Cindy, Trish and many more fans. It was another day in paradise for us with so many good players and so much great music. Keep on Rockin'.

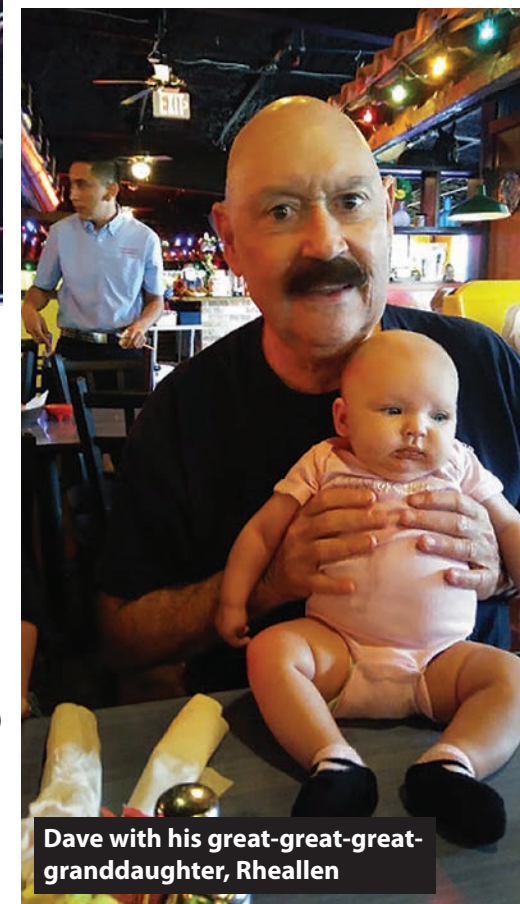

The next Sunday Deb and I went to The Hideaway on Dunvale in Houston for their 25th Anniversary party with six bands. We managed to see four bands before heading back north. First up was Duster with Dustin Faigen

Mark Connelly at The Hideaway

on guitar/vocals, Eric Dolch on guitar, Mike Leonard on bass, James Childs on drums and Carli Mosier on vocals with a set of rock and blues. Up next was Great Scott & the Almightys with Scott Starry on guitar/vocals, Mark Connelly on bass and Phil Hronas on drums with a set of covers that included Johnny Rivers "Secret Agent Man", and "Got You On My Mind".

Up next was our friend James Henry (who we knew since he was a teenager) on guitar/vocals, with Thurman "P-Funk" Robinson on bass and Michael Morris on drums for a killer set of blues including "All Night Long" and Hendrix's "Are You Experienced". The last act we caught was Tin Cadillac with Mike Karm on guitar/vocals doing an original, "It's All Right" and covers of Bobby "Blue" Bland's "Further On Up The Road" and Freddie King's "Tore Down". We headed north and stopped by the Jailhouse for a few last beers and more music before calling it a night.

I made one more stop at Backwoods Saloon with the usual cast of characters, plus Steve Krase fresh off his win of the Houston Blues Society annual blues contest (congratulations, Steve!), Richard Bearden on guitar/vocals, a set by Lady D, and a surprise visit by old friends Ken and Mary Harris, two of the biggest fans of live music just like me.

Like I said, there was a lot of live music this month and I'm not planning on slowing down any time soon. I'll see y'all at the next live music event.

Well, folks, that's about it for this month. If any of you need to get in touch with me, you can call me at 936-756-9699 or e-mail me at my email address of miller22@consolidated.net or mail me CD's to review at P.O. Box 2393, Conroe, TX 77305. See you next month!

Sounds recorded

Justin Townes Earle

Midnight at The Movies

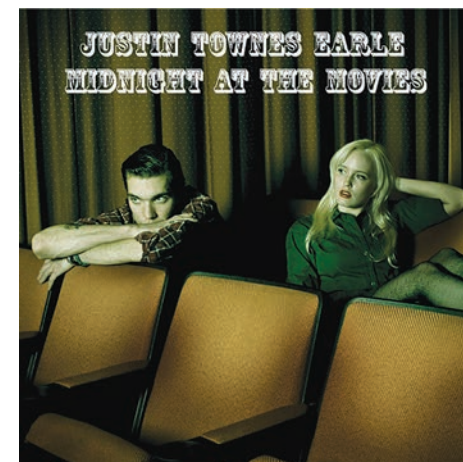

Bloodshot Records

This sophomore release by the remarkable young prodigy proves he wasn't a one-hit-wonder. But he stays the course with this collection of originals (except for the cover of "Can't Hardly Wait" by Paul Westerburg of The Replacements) that sound more like covers of traditional mountain music from the last century than something penned recently. The careful orchestration makes it sound so well produced that you often overlook the simplicity that overrides all the hard work that went into it. The title cut takes you back to the days when a movie date was as much for romance as for the movie itself, and the soulful "Mama's Eyes" tells the simple tale of the devotion he has for his mother. "They Killed John Henry" rolls a country blues beat into a mountain-man story that could have been written a hundred years ago, and "What I Mean To You" asks if the love he is feeling is mutual. The mournful "Black Eyed Suzy" questions how someone can continue doing what they know is wrong, when all else seems to fail, and "Poor Fool" is a pure country two-stepper with a sawdust-on-the-floor feel. Some wailing harp highlights "Halfway To Jackson", turning it into a

delta blues stomp, then he turns the tempo down for a lost love ballad, "Someday I'll Be Forgiven For This", easily the most heart-wrenching cut in the bunch. The ragtime feel of "Walk Out" could have been played in any honky tonk in the 1930's, and "Here We Go Again" is another tender love ballad that makes him fall for "the way you moved, just like a whisper in the wind". The single cover, "Can't Hardly Wait" is given due respect, and he makes it his own, easily, with a more country feel than the original. There is much to like here, and the variety of genres he melds together makes this a keeper. Watch for him in our area soon. Find it at www.bloodshotrecords.com

Rett syndrome (RTT) is a neurological disorder, found primarily in females. The girls progress normally up until about 12 to 18 months of age when the characteristics of Rett start to reveal themselves. All the social skills and motor skills they have obtained slowly cease to progress, starting a process of regression to what is the equivalent of living the rest of their life as an infant. They lose use of their hands, the ability to speak and most are bound to a wheelchair. Parents and siblings become 24-hour caregivers, changing their lives forever as well. . ."

~ Kevin Black ~

Photographer Dave Clements and musician Kevin Black have joined forces to create this outstanding book featuring photographs of 200 music artists, including notables such as Willie Nelson, Sir Paul McCartney, Dolly Parton, Don Henley and Glenn Fry, Kenny Rogers, B.B. King, Stevie Nicks, George Strait, Jimmy Buffet, Merle Haggard and many, many more, all agreeing to "Raise a Hand" to find a cure for Rett Syndrome.

The books are available locally at Dosey Doe Big Barn,
Dosey Doe Music Cafe,
& Red Brick Tavern,
or visit the website to have a book mailed to you.

Any music lover would love to own a copy of this book, and all proceeds from the sale of the book go toward research to find a cure for Rett Syndrome.
